Veteran’s Day November 11,2019.

Veteran’s day was established to honor all of Americas Veterans, past and present. Veteran’s day is largely intended to thank living veterans for their services to our country and to underscore the fact that all who served, not only those who died, have scarified greatly for our country. Most Holy and Immaculate Virgin Mary, Glorious Queen of Peace, grant us peace in our hearts, harmony in our families, and concord throughout the world.

~ ~ From the Pastor's Desk ~ ~

Praying for the dead is part of our belief in the Communion of The Saint, we pray for each other. Those who have died continue to be members of the Communion of Saints. We believe we can assist them through our prayers and they can assist us by theirs. During the month of November, we set aside time to pray for all the Faithful Departed, especially our own family members, and friends. There are All Souls Day envelopes in the vestibule of the Church. List the names of those you want to remember, include your donation and return them in the collection basket or at the Rectory. These envelopes will remain on the altar for the month of November.

WAITING-A Waste of Time? A Scared Time?

Our culture does not value waiting g. We feel it is not only a waste of time but it also makes us impatient and anxious. Our Church elevates the experience of waiting to a liturgical season. With Advent upon us- we will take a deeper look at waiting and see what God might be trying to reveal to us through this often frustrating experience. Come and waste some time with us!

~~ Desde El Escritorio Del Pastor ~~

Orar por los Muertos es parte de nuestra creencia en la Comunión de Los Santos que oramos los unos por los otros. Los que han muerto siguen siendo miembros de la Comunión de los Santos. Creemos que podemos ayudar a través de nuestras oraciones y ellos pueden ayudarnos con las suyas. Durante el mes de noviembre reservamos tiempo para orar por todos los fieles difuntos, especialmente por nuestros familiares y amigos. Hay sobres del Día de los Difuntos en la parte posterior de la Iglesia. Escriba los nombres de las personas que desea recordar, incluya su donación y devuélvalos en la canasta de recolección o en la Rectoría. Estos sobres permanecerán en el altar por el mes de noviembre.

Día de los Veteranos 11 de noviembre de 2019.

El día de los veteranos se estableció para honrar a todos los veteranos de las Américas, pasados y presentes. El día de los veteranos pretende agradecer en gran medida a los veteranos vivos por sus servicios a nuestro país y subrayar el hecho de que todos los que sirvieron, no solo los que murieron, se han escarificado mucho en nuestro país. La Santísima e Inmaculada Virgen María, Gloriosa Reina de la Paz, nos otorga paz en nuestros corazones, armonía en nuestras familias y concordia en todo el mundo.

November 10, 2019 – Thirty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time: Reflection by Rev. Leonard N. Peterson

It became perennial. I am referring to each new batch of high school sophomores I had to teach, with their innate ability to be, shall I say, ever so politely, “unpleasantly lacking in self-control?” For some eight years of my 17 teaching high school, I was their Religion teacher. It’s a form of “dry martyrdom” worthy at least of a dented halo. I remember particularly how they would try to take advantage of my decision to offer a relaxed Friday “Q & A” session most weeks. What they would do frequently enough was to pose questions unrelated to the subject matter, or else ask those akin to what the Sadducees asked Jesus. For example, “Can God make a square circle?” Both types of questions are unworthy of a serious answer. The questioner is mainly interested in annoying the teacher, or at least usher him/her into an embarrassing position. Of course, the Sadducees were confronting the greatest Teacher who ever lived with their trick question. They weren’t really interested in the whole matter of whose wife a woman of multiple husbands would be in the resurrected life. To begin with, they did not believe in the resurrection of the dead. We know that the gospels are replete with incidents that are like mirrors held up to us. The stories lead us to a little self-examination. For example, have you or I ever questioned God? Demanded answers of Him about one of life’s persistent questions? Or challenged Him to defend one of His decisions involving you? Let me be clear from the outset: to question God respectfully is not in itself wrong. Many questions, for example, are put to God in the Psalms (Psalm 10, 44, 74 and 77). People asked questions of Jesus that were natural and spontaneous. St. Luke gives us a sampling. Early on, His disciples ate grain from a wheat field on a sabbath. Some Pharisees asked, “Why are you doing what our Law says you cannot do on a sabbath?” (Luke 6:2) Later on, some of the Baptist’s disciples asked Him: “Are you the one who is to come, or should we expect someone else?” (Luke 7:20) After a parable about a sower “His disciples asked Jesus what this parable meant?” (Luke 8: 9) Before a spectacular miracle: “All we have are five loaves and two fish. Do you want us to go and buy food for this whole crowd? There were about five thousand men there.” (Luke 9:13) The list goes on. In short, an honest question is not a sin, but a bitter, untrusting or rebellious heart is. At a certain age in life it is out of place to be sophomoric in our questions to the Lord. Allow me to add two corollaries:

1. It is not every question that deserves an answer.
2. When somebody says “That’s a good question,” you can be pretty sure it’s a lot better than the answer you’re going to get.

Over and above all this is the ever-consoling truth that God loves each of us, by name and forever, unless we turn away from Him. The Bible, the Church, and my faith tell me that’s really and truly...unquestionable.
