Please be careful to follow the safety guidelines proposed by our local and state officials, and the Diocese of Victoria. (the full statement from the Diocese is available on the diocese website) Things to consider about concerning Mass:

- People over the age of 65, or have underlying at-risk conditions, are encouraged to continue participating from home. Dispensation from Sunday obligation to attend in person is extended through July 31, especially with respect to people who may be considered physically well to attend, yet believe it best to stay at home. Parishioners should not attend Mass if exhibiting any signs of sickness.
- In order to accommodate social distancing protocols we are to limit the number of people attending any Mass (thus far we have had sufficient room to social distance) Parishioners are to be seated in every other pew, and allow the minimum 6 feet spacing in the pew. Those of the same household can be seated together.
- Ushers/greeters are to wear gloves and masks, and to open and close doors for parishioners upon their arrival and departure. All parishioners wear masks. Missalettes and hymnals will not be utilized.
- The ushers will not pass the collection baskets - the collection baskets will be placed at the church entrance and people are asked to make contributions when entering or exiting.
- Parishioners should be careful not to gather too closely when entering, leaving, or in the communion line.
- Priests and Eucharistic Ministers should wear masks during distribution of communion. The person receiving communion should receive in the hand and open the hand to allow the minister to place the Eucharist without making contact. If hand to hand, or glove to hand, contact is made, the minister is to stop distributing the Eucharist and sanitize their hands before continuing.
- Mass Ministry will be on a volunteer basis throughout June. To volunteer at Hostyn please contact the parish office and to volunteer at Plum please contact Maxine Holub or Mary Lou Anderle.

Those who are unable to attend Mass or who believe it is best to stay at home are encouraged to make a Spiritual Communion, and to participate in Mass through television, radio and internet.

Any parish group planning to resume gatherings, meetings and events following the social distancing guidelines is asked to inform the parish office.

*I wish to thank the Parishioners of Queen of the Holy Rosary, Hostyn, and St Peter and Paul, Plum, for their support over these past fourteen years as your Deacon. I have enjoyed very much serving you - unfortunately, due to a fall that shattered my rotator cuff, my ability to do all I wanted to do was reduced. I spoke to Fr Dan, and Bishop Cahill in October and they agreed I could continue as a Deacon in a limited way. As I will be eighty-one this year, I feel it is time to step back. Eileen and I have been parishioners for the past thirty-seven years, and we plan to spend the evening of our life here among people we love and respect. Feel free to contact me if I can be of any help. I will always be a deacon, and my call is still to serve. It is a blessing to have Fr Bob as our Pastor, who chose to come here to serve you.
May Almighty God continue to Bless you and keep you safe. You will be in my daily prayers.
Deacon John*
