Reflection on the Scriptures

"He is not here; He has been raised up." —Luke 24:6
 Jesus is risen! "Death is swallowed up in victory. O death, where is your victory? O death, where is your sting?" (1 Corinthians 15:54-55) Praise Jesus, "the Resurrection and the Life"! (John 11:25) A few years ago, I celebrated the Easter Vigil at an inner-city church about to be closed. After the church's lights were turned on following the blessing of the new fire and the lighting of the Easter candle, I was shocked. There were almost as many people in the small choir as in the rest of the congregation. It broke my heart to see this parish in ruins — a parish which previously had two assistant pastors and a school taught by ten nuns. Nevertheless, we celebrated the Easter Vigil. We celebrated by faith, not by sight (2 Corinthians 5:7). Although we looked and felt dead rather than alive in Christ, we praised God as if the church had been filled.

On this first day of Easter, many of us, like the women at Jesus' tomb, are "bewildered and trembling" (Mark 16:8). Right now, we don't look risen and victorious. Our lives are "hidden now with Christ in God" (Colossians 3:3). However, the fact is that through Baptism we "have been raised up in company with Christ" (Col 3:1). Therefore, by faith let us live our Baptisms and be witnesses for the risen Christ (see Acts 10:41, 42). Alleluia! He is risen!

MAHALO NUI LOA to the many hands that cut, marinated, cooked, served, donated, set up, feasted and cleaned up in ROL's Fish Fry last Friday night. The annual event filled with food, fellowship and prayer would not have been successful without you, the ROL parishioners. You are the best! Special thanks to our Youth Ministry for presenting the Stations of the Cross so reverently. It was a wonderful way to complete the evening. Thank you all so much!
