Reflection on the Scriptures

"Blest are you, Simon son of Jonah! No mere man has revealed this to you, but My heavenly Father."
 —Matthew 16:17

God the Father revealed to Simon that Jesus was the Messiah, the Son of the living God (Matthew 16:16). As with all divine revelations, this was a catalyst leading to Simon's name being changed to Peter (Matthew 16:18), Jesus building His Church on Peter (Matthew 16:18), Peter being given the authority symbolized by the keys to the kingdom of heaven (Matthew 16:19), and Jesus insisting on the cross as the essence of discipleship (Matthew 16:24). Peter naturally did not understand all these further revelations, and did not initially accept the cross (Matthew 16:22).

The Lord also reveals Himself to us. For example, He may penetrate our hearts with the message of His mercy. This revelation is a catalyst leading us to realize the necessity of giving mercy (Matthew 5:7). This implies taking up the cross of forgiving and loving even our enemies. Once again, a divine revelation transports us to the cross. Then we are faced with Simon Peter's dilemma. We are pleased to receive some revelation from the Lord, but we may be reluctant to accept the message of the cross. Will we embrace the cross, or hear the words of Jesus to Peter: "Get out of My sight, you satan! You are trying to make Me trip and fall. You are not judging by God's standards but by man's" (Matthew 16:23) By faith, in love, take up your daily cross and follow Jesus (Luke 9:23).
