Reflection on the Scriptures

"His dominion is an everlasting dominion that shall not be taken away. His kingship shall not be destroyed." —Daniel 7:14

In heaven, the form of government in which we shall live eternally will not be a democracy, socialism, a Communist regime, or that of a tyrannical dictator. Jesus is King, that is, a Monarch, and He is a benevolent and sovereign Lord. We who believe in King Jesus will spend eternity with a blessed Ruler (1 Timothy 6:15) Who loves us beyond measure.

Even those who have lived in a worldly monarchy or benevolent dictatorship will hardly be able to relate to the heavenly kingdom, for no one has even begun to imagine what our Ruler has in store for us (1 Corinthians 2:9). Earthly kings might be so lavish as to throw a seven-day party (Esther 1:5); King Jesus gives an eternal wedding feast (Revelations 19:9). Earthly rulers put to death those who try to kill them (Esther A:13-14); Lord Jesus dies for us as we kill Him (Catechism, 598). Only a few people are allowed access to earthly rulers; everyone has access to King Jesus (Ephesians 2:18; Matthew 11:28; John 6:37). Earthly rulers lord their authority over their subjects (Matthew 20:25); Lord Jesus comes to serve His subjects and lay down His life out of love for us (Matthew 20:28; Luke 22:27; John 10:15; 13:5).

Many in our secular world choose to serve gods of sex, money, power, greed, ambition, status, or wanton pleasure-seeking. Others are imprisoned under the rule of the harsh dictatorship of addiction, compulsion, abuse. "Decide today whom you will serve" (Joshua 24:15). Give your life to Jesus, your King and Lord.
