CONFIDENCE IN THE LORD

We are nearing the end of the liturgical year. Today's readings remind us that our own lives will draw to a close one day, and we can be certain that the Lord will encourage, strengthen, and save us—both now and at the last. The astonishing story of the Maccabees invigorates our faith as we behold an entire family willing to die rather than deny the Law of Moses. The psalm response echoes the faithful cries of the Maccabees: "I call upon you, for you will answer me, O God." That same confidence appears in Saint Paul's letter to the Thessalonians. "The Lord is faithful," he testifies; "he will strengthen you and guard you from the evil one." In the Gospel, Jesus explains just how long God's protection will endure. The children of God whom God guards, Jesus says, will live forever like angels.

PERSPECTIVE

We must often draw the comparison of time and eternity. This is the remedy of all our troubles. How small will the present moment appear when we enter that great ocean/

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton

If you've been talking or thinking about the priesthood, now's the time for action: come and see for yourself, ask your questions, express your concerns, meet other seminarians and pray for God's will. "Come to the Well" is a day of hope and restoration for anyone who has suffered the loss of a loved one: parents, children, siblings, spouse, etc. The day is filled with prayer utilizing meditation "Living Scripture," music, journaling, and personal sharing to honor and embrace the reality of shared loss. Sponsored by the Office of Marriage, Family, and Pro-Life Activities, "Come to the Well" offers opportunities for retreatants to find strength in the sharing to move through the losses of life with hope for a renewed vision. The cost is $35 per person and includes lunch. Please register by November 1, 2019. For more information, visit our website www.diolaf.org/pro-life or call 337-261-5598.
