SEEKING THE LIGHT

In today's readings we find ourselves being drawn more deeply into relationship with Jesus. We are getting to know more about him as we see how he struggles with the news of his cousin John's arrest. His first response is to withdraw, to leave Nazareth and go to Capernaum. There he is perhaps both consoled and challenged by the words of Isaiah that Matthew quotes: "the people who sit in darkness have seen a great light, / on those dwelling in a land overshadowed by death / light has arisen" (Matthew 4:16). Jesus contemplates his cousin's death, perhaps his own death, and he seeks the light. Maybe it is these words of Isaiah that move Jesus out of his withdrawal and into action. He begins to preach, teach, cure disease and illness, and proclaim the gospel of the kingdom.

CARRY THE LOAD

The chief thing is to take the burden on one's shoulders. As you press forward, it soon shakes down and the load is evenly distributed.

—St. John Bosco

**PLEASE SILENCE YOUR CELL PHONES****

*What is your level of peace on a scale of 1-10? In this troubled world, fractured families, failing bodies, and withering anxiety, it is often hard to experience true, inward, lasting peace. Yet, In the Upper Room, just hours before his arrest, trials, crucifixion and death, Jesus had a talk with his friends who sensed the impending doom. They were facing the dread of losing him and the fear of losing their own lives. Still, even then, Jesus said to them, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. My peace I give you. (John 14: 1,27) How can we find that peace? Come join us to explore this topic in a four-week Bible Study, My Peace I Give You.
