SAINT JUNÍPERO SERRA (1713-1784)

July 1

No one who has stood before the quiet majesty of Mission San Juan Capistrano, or the altogether different but no less lovely Mission Dolores in San Francisco, or any of the missions from San Diego to Sonoma can fail to bless the Franciscan padre who, while not founder of each, was inspiration for them all, Saint Junípero Serra. Abandoning the comfortable academic life to which his doctorate in theology entitled him, Serra journeyed to the New World where his tireless traveling, dramatic preaching, and penitential austerity converted thousands of native peoples. Saving souls and celebrating the sacraments were Padre Serra's primary mission but not his only one. Education in letters and crafts, trades and agriculture transformed the people, while roads and irrigation systems refigured the landscape. His more than thirty years of ministry were not free from conflict with authorities or without controversy in the retrospectively critical eye of history. But when John Paul II beatified him in 1988, he praised Padre Serra for assisting his converts to use their new faith to advance their true human development.

AROUND THE PARISH

PLEASE SILENCE YOUR CELL PHONES

Mass has resumed in church according to guidelines set forth by the Bishop and Governor of Louisiana. Maximum attendance is 150 people per mass. With that said, Fr. Dan will be saying the traditional 4 pm mass Saturday, 8am and 10 am on Sundays. Weekdays he will be saying noon mass Monday, Tuesday, and Friday. 8 am mass on Wednesday and no mass on Thursday. Please adhere to distancing guidelines and safety masks are to be worn.

Coronavirus Prayer

Holy Virgin of Guadalupe, Queen of the Angels and Mother of the Americas. We fly to you today as your beloved children. We ask you to intercede for us with your Son, as you did at the wedding in Cana. Pray for us, loving Mother, and gain for our nation and world, and for all our families and loved ones, the protection of your holy angels, that we may be spared the worst of this illness. For those already afflicted, we ask you to obtain the grace of healing and deliverance. Hear the cries of those who are vulnerable and fearful, wipe away their tears and help them to trust. In this time of trial and testing, teach all of us in the Church to love one another and to be patient and kind. Help us to bring the peace of Jesus to our land and to our hearts. We come to you with confidence, knowing that you truly are our compassionate mother, health of the sick and cause of our joy. Shelter us under the mantle of your protection, keep us in the embrace of your arms, help us always to know the love of your Son, Jesus.

The Catholic Daughters of America are accepting new members. They meet the third Tuesday of every month. Contact Gerry Sonnier if you are interested 780-1085.

If you are a Catholic man or woman who struggles with same-sex attraction, the Church wants to welcome and accompany you on your difficult journey. Courage is the only Vatican-approved ministry—a spiritual support group—for Catholics who struggle with same-sex attraction and who seek support in living a chaste Christian life. EnCourage is the associated ministry for parents and loved ones. For more information call 318-346-7010 or email lafayettecourage@yahoo.com

AROUND THE DIOCESE

AN ACT OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things and I desire to receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

Daily Holy Mass has been streaming on Facebook from various different churches in the Diocese. Please check the Diocese of Lafayette's Facebook page to get a listing and times of the various different masses in the area. Some churches are even offering drive thru Confession. On Friday, there will be Stations of the Cross offered by the diocese. Check their website.

TV MASS FOR THE HOMEBOUND—KLAf Channel 46 (NBC) 9:30 AM

Is someone you love is unable to join us at church during this holy time of Lent and Easter? For the faithful at home or in healthcare settings, the Heart of the Nation Sunday TV Mass brings spiritual comfort and the blessings of joy filled hope in our Risen Savior. (For those who can get to church, the TV or online liturgy does not fulfill the Sunday mass obligation.)

As more Catholics around the world find themselves unable to receive the Eucharist due to the coronavirus pandemic, Pope Francis provided an example of a spiritual communion prayer that can be said from home. "My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart ... I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You." Pope Francis prayed March 21 in his televised daily Mass from his residence in Vatican City.
