FEAST OF FAITH

Doxology and Amen

"Doxology" comes from a Greek word meaning "words of praise." The Eucharistic Prayer ends with a doxology addressed to the triune God: "Through him, with him, in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, almighty Father, for ever and ever." It is an exclamation of praise, honor, and glory to God, reminding us that we receive everything from God through the Son, in the power of the Spirit. At the consecration, the priest held up the host and then the chalice for us to see and adore. During the doxology, the host and chalice are held up again, but this time they are held up and offered to God the Father. With the doxology, the Eucharistic Prayer ends, as it began, with words of praise addressed to the Father: truly, it is right and just to give God praise, and we assent to this in our whole-hearted acclamation, "Amen." Never was more meaning packed into so short a word. This "Amen," sometimes and fittingly called "the great Amen," is our response to the entire Eucharistic Prayer.

AROUND THE PARISH

Please silence your cell phones

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray. And do thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, through the Precious Blood of Jesus, unleash the power of God to cast into hell forever Satan and all the other evil spirits who prowl throughout the world, seeking the ruins of souls. Amen

Please keep our neighbors to the East of us in your prayers for their recovery and well being after the wrath of Hurricane Ida. In 2 weeks the Spanish community will be going to LaPlace to feed and help clean up, any donations of non-perishables are appreciated.

What is your level of peace on a scale of 1-10? In this troubled world of fractured families, failing bodies, and withering anxiety, it is often hard to experience true, inward, lasting peace. Yet, in the Upper Room, just hours before His arrest, trials, crucifixion and death, Jesus spoke with His friends who sensed the impending doom. They were facing the dread of losing Him and the fear of losing their own lives. Still, even then, Jesus said to them, "Do not let your hearts be troubled. My peace I give you." (John 14: 1,27) How can we find that peace? Come join us to explore this topic in a four-week Bible Study. My Peace I Give You, Presented by Susan Castille, Oct. 28th, 2021 - Nov. 18th, 2021. 9:15 am- 11: 45 am . Please note church: Holy Cross Catholic Church - Faith Hall in Calais Center Bld C. Registration open to all . Due to ongoing COVID-19 conditions, which are continually changing, the number of attendees may be limited. We will accommodate the requirements mandated at the Oct. 28th date. To Register: Email susancastillebiblestudy@gmail.com. With your name & phone number. Do you already have commentary from March, 2020? Or Call Rosie at 337 981 1455. $15.00 donation accepted .

TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reading I-Wis 2:12, 17-20

The wicked say: Let us beset the just one, because he is obnoxious to us; he sets himself against our doings, reproaches us for transgressions of the law and charges us with violations of our training. Let us see Whether his words be true; let us find out what will happen to him. For if the just one be the son of God, God will defend him and deliver him from the hand of his foes. With revilement and torture let us put the just one to the test that we may have proof of his gentleness and try his patience. Let us condemn him to a shameful death; for according to his own words, God will take care of him.

Responsorial Psalm-Ps 54:3-4, 5, 6 and 8

R. (6b) The Lord upholds my life.

O God, by your name save me, and by your might defend my cause. O God, hear my prayer; hearken to the words of my mouth. R

For the haughty have risen up against me, the ruthless seek my life; they set not God before their eyes. R

Behold, God is my helper; the Lord sustains my life. Freely will I offer you sacrifice; I will praise your name, O LORD, for its goodness. R

Reading II-Jas 3:16-4:3

Beloved: Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every foul practice. But the wisdom from above is first of all pure, then peaceable, gentle, compliant, full of mercy and good fruits, without inconstancy or insincerity. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace for those who cultivate peace. Where do the wars and where do the conflicts among you come from? Is it not from your passions that make war within your members? You covet but do not possess. You kill and envy but you cannot obtain; you fight and wage war. You do not possess because you do not ask. You ask but do not receive, because you ask wrongly, to spend it on your passions.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

God has called us through the Gospel to possess the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Gospel-Mk 9:30-37

Jesus and his disciples left from there and began a journey through Galilee, but he did not wish anyone to know about it. He was teaching his disciples and telling them, The Son of Man is to be handed over to men and they will kill him, and three days after his death the Son of Man will rise." But they did not understand the saying, and they were afraid to question him. They came to Capernaum and, once inside the house, he began to ask them, "What were you arguing about on the way?" But they remained silent. They had been discussing among themselves on the way who was the greatest. Then he sat down, called the Twelve, and said to them, "If anyone wishes to be first, he shall be the last of all and the servant of all." Taking a child, he placed it in the their midst, and putting his arms around it, he said to them, "Whoever receives one child such as this in my name, receives me; and whoever receives me, receives not me but the One who sent me."
