REDISCOVERING THE ART OF LIVING AND DYING AS DISCIPLES OF CHRIST

The Archdiocese of St. John's welcomes (Sr.) Dr. Nuala Kenny for a public session called "Rediscovering the Art of Dying" on Sat., Feb. 17th, 10 -12 AM at Corpus Christi Parish Hall, Waterford Bridge Rd. Medically assisted death in Canada has rapidly become the 'new normal' in deep contradiction of the Christian tradition of a good death. It is the medicalization of human suffering and death. Jesus' Passion and death is a source of wisdom and hope on our own journey of health decisions. The reasons for requesting medically assisted death present disciples of the Risen Lord with new challenges to justice and care particularly for the most vulnerable among us. Sister Nuala Kenny's new book is Rediscovering the Art of Dying – How Jesus' Experience and Our Stories Reveal a New Vision of Compassionate Care. Drawing on the passion of Christ, Sr. Nuala Kenny reflects on the inevitable questions we all face regarding health, illness, suffering, and dying. Sister Kenny is well known for her expertise in end of life care and palliative care. This book is for anyone undergoing or reflecting on illness, suffering, and dying. It is also for families and friends who accompany the sick, dependent, and dying, and for caregivers. Sr. Nuala P. Kenny SC, MD, FRCP is a Sister of Charity and a medical doctor. She was appointed an Officer of the Order of Canada for her contributions to child health and medical education and has received a Queen's Jubilee Medal. She is author of hundreds of papers and three books: What Good is Health Care? Reflections on the Canadian Experience (2002), Healing the Church, (2012) and Rediscovering the Art of Dying – How Jesus' Experience and Our Stories Reveal a New Vision of Compassionate Care (2017). Dr. Kenny's book is available from Novalis : <https://en.novalis.ca/products/the-art-of-dying-and-the-pascal-mystery>. Copies available at sessions.
