Steubenville Atlantic Revealed - The Steubenville series of conferences are held across North America each year. They seek to invite teens into a life-changing relationship with Jesus Christ and His Church, empowering them to live as His disciples. These conferences are high-energy events featuring inspiring talks, amazing music and worship, and opportunities for encounter with Jesus through the Eucharist and the sacrament of reconciliation. Each year, young people from our Archdiocese travel to Halifax, NS to attend the "Atlantic" conference. This year, it will be held from July 6-8 at Dalhousie University. Youth between the ages 14-21 are encouraged to join us! For more information on this conference, please contact Sara at sbroderick@rcsj.org.

This year's commemoration will feature a multi-media presentation created by Professor Robert Katz of the University of Maine at Augusta, Were the House Still Standing. This work weaves together the testimony of sixteen Holocaust survivors and liberators, using video, photography, audio, and text to ensure that their memories will endure and be shared to future generations. The memorial service will be held in the Science Lecture Theatre, SN2109, in the Science Building at MUN. Parking is available in lot 15B adjacent to the Music School, and lot 1A in front of the Arts Building.

CANADIAN BLOOD SERVICES provides a life-saving service that benefits Newfoundlanders and Labradorians' every day. Canadian Blood Services collects blood and blood products, which help take care of and save the lives of hospital patients in our province every day. Blood not only makes many medical and surgical procedures possible, but also saves the lives of accident victims, cancer, cardiac and organ transplant patients. This year alone Canadian Blood Services needs to collect about 15,000 units of blood in this province to ensure the needs of sick or injured children and adults in Newfoundland and Labrador are met. Together we can make a difference in the lives of the people in our community and province. Please donate!
