

Building God's Community: As disciples of Jesus Christ, we the members of St. John Vianney Parish join together to proclaim God's Word, celebrate the sacraments, and serve others with compassion and generosity.

JOINING OUR PARISH

We welcome all who seek a spiritual home in our Catholic community. Introduce yourself to the pastor and he will help you join our parish.

If you are not baptized, or are baptized in another Christian tradition and seek full communion with the Catholic Church, consider the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults process. It begins with inquiry sessions in which you can ask questions and discuss issues with other seekers. The process continues with opportunities for learning and spiritual transformation. The RCIA also serves baptized Catholics who did not have the opportunity to receive Holy Communion and Confirmation. The Director of Religious Education will help you start.

BAPTISM

If you are parents seeking baptism for your child, please introduce yourself to the pastor after Mass. He wishes to meet you in person before making an appointment for baptism preparation.

MARRIAGE

Our pastor invites engaged couples to make an appointment with him at least six months prior to marriage, before setting a wedding date. Couples are welcome to call as soon as you decide to marry or even while you are still considering whether to go forward toward marriage.

BUILDING AND GROUNDS COMMITTEE MEETING:
JULY 13, 6:30P.M. IN THE RECTORY

MOVIE NIGHT

Next movie night is at Pius X at 7 pm on July 10 "Have a Little Faith". Mitch Albom has a pretty good life, then two men come into his life and he realizes something's missing.

Rabbi Albert Lewis presides over a thriving synagogue in a comfortable N.J. suburb, and pastor Henry Covington, a recovering drug user and dealer, preaches to the poor and homeless in a crumbling Detroit inner-city church. Moving between their worlds - Christian and Jewish, African-American and white, impoverished and privileged-Albom witnesses first-hand how these two very different men not only live life but celebrate it. What else do these two have in common? They believe there's a divine spark in all of us - and that a single person can make a big difference to others' lives, as long as they have a little faith. Join us and enjoy this true story in air conditioning. Refreshments will be served.

Call for Volunteers! Planning is underway for our next Chicken BBQ held at St. Pius X Church grounds. Many helpers are needed to make our annual parish BBQ a success. Please consider volunteering a few hours of your time to building our parish community and raising funds to keep our worship facilities and services going strong. There are many opportunities to lend your talents and support. They include set up and tear down, food/beverage stand help, children's games coordinator, bingo tent, and new this year!: Sweet Corn: we will need help with shucking, cooking, and preparation. Please contact by text or phone: Terri 570-954-4198 or Kathy 570-594-1426. Also, sign up sheets will be available in the church entrances.

BAKED GOODS NEEDED: Baked goods are needed for the barbecue on Aug 8. We don't have an area to cut up pieces at the Church, so we are asking that bakers individually wrap pieces before bringing them to the bake sale. We appreciate all bake goods donated and thank everyone in advance.
