May God Bless each family present.
And bless our entire Holy Family Parish.
Make it like the family of your Son.
May our moments of sorrow give way to the seasons of joy.
May the memory of harsh words fade before the warmth of a loving touch.
May the tears of sorrow be replaced by the music of laughter.
May resentment be banished from our families, and may forgiveness reign in our hearts.
Today and everyday.  Amen!

The feast celebrated by the Pilgrims in 1621 was never actually called “Thanksgiving!” It was simply a harvest observance, celebrating making it through the first winter, and due to the new harvest, having enough food to sustain them through the year and through the next winter. At this early celebration, the Pilgrims didn’t have potatoes, didn’t eat turkey, and didn’t have ovens in which to bake pies. They likely ate fowl, deer, mussels, lobsters, grapes, plums, corn and herbs.

In terms of prayer, before the departure of 102 original members of the Plymouth Colony on the Mayflower, there was an emotional worship service conducted by the Reverend John Robinson, sending these travelers off on their pilgrimage (hence “Pilgrims”). But the first harvest observance was not per se a religious celebration. There were no prayers as such.

By the time of that first harvest celebration, only 53 members who began the journey on the Mayflower still survived, the others having died of disease or starvation. One of those survivors, William Brewster, not an ordained minister, served as ruling elder of the congregation at Plymouth Colony. It was his job to conduct religious services. Sabbath services were held twice on Sundays and sermons were offered on Thursdays. In addition, the tradition was begun to hold days of thanksgiving or days of fasting on weekdays in response to God’s providence. It wasn’t until a few years into the Pilgrim’s permanency in the New World that these celebrations of harvest and religious thanksgiving services were melded, eventually to become what we will celebrate as Thanksgiving Day on November 28th this year.

May God Bless each family present.
And bless our entire Holy Family Parish.
Make it like the family of your Son.
May our moments of sorrow give way to the seasons of joy.

May the memory of harsh words fade before the warmth of a loving touch.

May the tears of sorrow be replaced by the music of laughter.

May resentment be banished from our families, and may forgiveness reign in our hearts.

Today and everyday. Amen!

The North Coast Catholic newspaper of October 2019 ran a story about the shortage of priests in the Amazon region of South America. The story tells of a gathering of bishops and other Church leaders taking place in Rome to discuss possible solutions to the shortage. Part of the discussion focused on allowing married men to be ordained to the priesthood in the Amazon region. This might include catechists who are older and already have a role of responsibility in parishes, or married deacons (preferably indigenous, respected family members) who would be bestowed with Holy Orders. No immediate decision is likely from the gathering, but according to the article, the conversation will continue.

The article also points out that married priests from the Eastern Catholic Churches have returned to full communion with Rome and retained their married status while performing all the functions of the priesthood. It also points out that exceptions have been made by the Latin Rite Church for married clergy from the Anglican or Lutheran Churches who have been brought into full communion with the Church of Rome and have been ordained as Catholic priests. What do you think the future holds for such issues as these in the Church?

The last time we changed from daylight saving time, a preacher friend posted, “For those who habitually show up 15 minutes late to church, allow me to remind you that tonight is the night you set your clock back 45 minutes.”

What is a friend?

A good friend is like a four-leaf clover: sometimes hard to find but lucky to have.
Irish Proverb

Good friends are like stars. You don’t always see them, but you know they’re always there.  - Anonymous

The only way to have a friend is to be one.
Ralph Waldo Emerson

In the cookie of life, friends are the chocolate chips.
- Anonymous

Truly great friends are hard to find, difficult to leave, and impossible to forget.
Anonymous

True friends are never apart / maybe in distance but never in heart.
Anonymous

Friends are those rare people who ask how we are and then wait to hear the answer.
- Ed Cunningham
