Planting the Seeds of Good Stewardship in our Children

Beginning the first weekend of October, Oct. 6 & 7, during the Offertory, the presider stood in the middle of the aisle with a basket and invited all of our children to come with their offerings. Each weekend the children are encouraged to come forward and bring their offerings. Through this practice we want to teach our children how to be good stewards. At the same time, we want to teach our children that our monetary offering is only one way of being good stewards. All that we have comes from a loving God and in gratitude we acknowledge that by offering our time, treasure, and talents to serve God and his people.

Remember to Vote: "A good Catholic meddles in politics." –Pope Francis.

On Tuesday, November 6, U.S. citizens have the duty and privilege of voting for leaders in the mid-term election. As Catholics, we are called to carefully consider the important issues facing our nation. Growing political divides, continued economic disparities and increased instances of targeted discrimination continue to plague the United States. During these times, it is critical to continue to "orient our politics on Dorothy Day, Thomas Merton, Abraham Lincoln and Martin Luther King Jr." as Pope Francis suggested during his 2015 address to Congress. This election season, as you consider which candidates will promote the path of the common good, please reflect upon the A Call to Holiness. www.usscb.org - www.sistersofmercy.org

A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

17. At times, life presents great challenges. Through them, the Lord calls us anew to a conversion that can make his grace more evident in our lives, “in order that we may share his holiness” (Heb 12:10). At other times, we need only find a more perfect way of doing what we are already doing: “There are inspirations that tend solely to perfect in an extraordinary way the ordinary things we do in life”.^[15] When Cardinal François-Xavier Nguyễn van Thuân was imprisoned, he refused to waste time waiting for the day he would be set free. Instead, he chose “to live the present moment, filling it to the brim with love”. He decided: “I will seize the occasions that present themselves every day; I will accomplish ordinary actions in an extraordinary way”.^[16]

18. In this way, led by God’s grace, we shape by many small gestures the holiness God has willed for us, not as men and women sufficient unto ourselves but rather “as good stewards of the manifold grace of God” (1 Pet 4:10). The New Zealand bishops rightly teach us that we are capable of loving with the Lord’s unconditional love, because the risen Lord shares his powerful life with our fragile lives:

“His love set no limits and, once given, was never taken back. It was unconditional and remained faithful. To love like that is not easy because we are often so weak. But just to try to love as Christ loved us shows that Christ shares his own risen life with us. In this way, our lives demonstrate his power at work – even in the midst of human weakness”.^[17]

A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

17. A veces la vida presenta desafíos mayores y a través de ellos el Señor nos invita a nuevas conversiones que permiten que su gracia se manifieste mejor en nuestra existencia «para que participemos de su santidad» (Hb 12,10). Otras veces solo se trata de encontrar una forma más perfecta de vivir lo que ya hacemos: «Hay inspiraciones que tienden solamente a una extraordinaria perfección de los ejercicios ordinarios de la vida»^[15]. Cuando el Cardenal Francisco Javier Nguyễn van Thuân estaba en la cárcel, renunció a desgastarse esperando su liberación. Su opción fue «vivir el momento presente colmándolo de amor»; y el modo como se concretaba esto era: «Aprovecho las ocasiones que se presentan cada día para realizar acciones ordinarias de manera extraordinaria»^[16].

18. Así, bajo el impulso de la gracia divina, con muchos gestos vamos construyendo esa figura de santidad que Dios quería, pero no como seres autosuficientes sino «como buenos administradores de la multiforme gracia de Dios» (1 P 4,10). Bien nos enseñaron los Obispos de Nueva Zelanda que es posible amar con el amor incondicional del Señor, porque el Resucitado comparte su vida poderosa con nuestras frágiles vidas: «Su amor no tiene límites y una vez dado nunca se echó atrás. Fue incondicional y permaneció fiel. Amar así no es fácil porque muchas veces somos tan débiles. Pero precisamente para tratar de amar como Cristo nos amó, Cristo comparte su propia vida resucitada con nosotros. De esta manera, nuestras vidas demuestran su poder en acción, incluso en medio de la debilidad humana»[\[17\]](#).

Salttilo Mission Announcement

We announce the arrival of the Salttilo Mission book at Olive Branch. The book chronicles the history of the Salttilo Mission since its inception and contains four chapters on the founder of the Salttilo Mission, Fr. Patrick Quinn. This coming year marks the golden jubilee of the mission. The book explains why Mississippi got involved in the mission, what Mississippians did for the mission and what the mission did for us. It has two chapters on the Salttilo Summer program where more than 20,000 of our youth visited the mission since its inception and it has many human-interest stories in it. The book will be available for $15. Salttilo Mission is jointly sponsored by the Diocese of Biloxi and Jackson. The other book on the life of the founder Fr. Patrick Quinn (Oh Good Man) will be available for $10. Fr. Mike Flannery (the author) of the Salttilo Mission book will be at the 10 am Mass at Queen of Peace in Olive Branch on Sunday November 11th.

MANY THANKS TO EVERYONE

Dear Parish Family,

I was overwhelmed by the love and kindness shown to our family as we celebrated the life of my mom, Katherine Carroll. Words cannot express how thankful we are for those who assisted with her funeral Mass, those that prepared and served food, all the many much needed hugs, prayers and kind words. It was so apparent how many lives she touched in some way or another. Thank you all so much.

May God continue to bless you all,

Kathy Beach and family

Blessing of Veterans: There will be a special blessing of our veterans at all Masses on the weekend of November 10th and 11th.

We encourage all veterans to attend and wear something to indicate their branch of military service.
