Attention Everyone

On Tuesday, March 17, you should have received a telephone call or e-mail informing you that there will be no daily or Weekend Masses. The Diocese will provide a link to live stream Masses. Funerals and weddings will be allowed with a limited number of people (family, etc). All parish events are cancelled through the end of the month. That means no penance service, forgiveness walk, Stations of the Cross, etc. The fish fry is being postponed. The Bishop will reevaluate the situation at the end of the month. There is to be no homebound communion. If you have a life threatening medical emergency, please call the emergency number – 901-351-6591. If you would like to make an appointment for confession you may do so. The parish offices will remain open. We apologize for the inconvenience, but together we can place our faith and trust in God and get through all of this. Stay on your knees and in the Word!

ENCOUNTER LENT – Meet Maria Ana

Maria Ana and her brothers receive one meal a day at school, so that they can focus on achieving their dreams. How was education important for your future? How can you ensure that all young people have a chance to be educated. Visit csrcrcebowl.org for more.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
 I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
 Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
 I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.
 Never permit me to be separated from You.
 Amen.

Sacred Heart School is looking for interested individuals to join the Strategic Planning Committee. This committee will help identify key strategic priorities, goals and actions that the school should focus on over the next few years. For more information, contact Principal Bridget Martin at bmartin@shsm.org or call 662-349-0900.

Our Holy Spirit Parish Family offers their deepest condolences to Timothy & Rhonda Grillo on the recent death of her aunt + Barbara Wilder. May her soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace

A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

152. I ask that we never regard prayerful silence as a form of escape and rejection of the world around us. The Russian pilgrim, who prayed constantly, says that such prayer did not separate him from what was happening all around him. "Everybody was kind to me; it was as though everyone loved me... Not only did I feel [happiness and consolation] in my own soul, but the whole outside world also seemed to me full of charm and delight". [115]

153. Nor does history vanish. Prayer, because it is nourished by the gift of God present and at work in our lives, must always be marked by remembrance. The memory of God's works is central to the experience of the covenant between God and his people. God wished to enter history, and so our prayer is interwoven with memories. We think back not only on his revealed Word, but also on our own lives, the lives of others, and all that the Lord has done in his Church. This is the grateful memory that Saint Ignatius of Loyola refers to in his Contemplation for Attaining Love, [116] when he asks us to be mindful of all the blessings we have received from the Lord. Think of your own history when you pray, and there you will find much mercy. This will also increase your awareness that the Lord is ever mindful of you; he never forgets you. So it makes sense to ask him to shed light on the smallest details of your life, for he sees them all.
