Even though public Masses have been canceled, our priests will continue celebrating Mass privately where they will ask for the intentions of the day as well as for the healing and recovery of the sick.

Attention Everyone

On Tuesday, March 17, you should have received a telephone call or e-mail informing you that there will be no daily or Weekend Masses. Funerals and weddings will be allowed with a limited number of people (family, etc). All parish events are cancelled through the end of the month. That means no penance service, forgiveness walk, Stations of the Cross, etc. The fish fry is being postponed.

The Bishop has extended all cancellations through April 30.

There is to be no homebound communion. If you have a life threatening medical emergency, please call the emergency number – 901-351-6591. If you would like to make an appointment for confession you may do so. The parish offices will remain open. We apologize for the inconvenience, but together we can place our faith and trust in God and get through all of this. Stay on your knees and in the Word!

Jesus Christ,
you traveled through towns and villages
"curing every disease and illness."
At your command, the sick were made well.
Come to our aid now,
in the midst of the global spread of the coronavirus,
that we may experience your healing love.

Heal those who are sick
with the virus.
May they regain their strength and health
through quality medical care.
We make this prayer in your name,
confident that you listen and respond to our prayers.
Amen.

Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already
there and unite myself
wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Seriously Sick & Hospitalized Please Pray For The Sick

A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

154. Prayer of supplication is an expression of a heart that trusts in God and realizes that of itself it can do nothing. The life of God's faithful people is marked by constant supplication born of faith-filled love and great confidence. Let us not downplay prayer of petition, which so often calms our hearts and helps us persevere in hope. Prayer of intercession has particular value, for it is an act of trust in God and, at the same time, an expression of love for our neighbor. There are those who think, based on a one-sided spirituality, that prayer should be unalloyed contemplation of God, free of all distraction, as if the names and faces of others were somehow an intrusion to be avoided. Yet in reality, our prayer will be all the more pleasing to God and more effective for our growth in holiness if, through intercession, we attempt to practice the twofold commandment that Jesus left us. Intercessory prayer is an expression of our fraternal concern for others, since we are able to embrace their lives, their deepest troubles and their loftiest dreams. Of those who commit themselves generously to intercessory prayer we can apply the words of Scripture: "This is a man who loves the brethren and prays much for the people" (2 Mac 15:14).
