Spiritual Communion Prayer

My Jesus, I believe that
You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.
I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself
wholly to You.
Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.

Our Holy Spirit Parish Family offers their deepest condolences to Ron & Shirley Henderson on the recent death of his brother +Bill Henderson. May his soul and the souls of all the faithful departed rest in peace

A CALL TO HOLINESS BY POPE FRANCIS.

170. Certainly, spiritual discernment does not exclude existential, psychological, sociological or moral insights drawn from the human sciences. At the same time, it transcends them. Nor are the Church's sound norms sufficient. We should always remember that discernment is a grace. Even though it includes reason and prudence, it goes beyond them, for it seeks a glimpse of that unique and mysterious plan that God has for each of us, which takes shape amid so many varied situations and limitations. It involves more than my temporal well-being, my satisfaction at having accomplished something useful, or even my desire for peace of mind. It has to do with the meaning of my life before the Father who knows and loves me, with the real purpose of my life, which nobody knows better than he. Ultimately, discernment leads to the wellspring of undying life: to know the Father, the only true God, and the one whom he has sent, Jesus Christ (cf. Jn 17:3). It requires no special abilities, nor is it only for the more intelligent or better educated. The Father readily reveals himself to the lowly (cf. Mt 11:25).

Remember

Beginning Pentecost weekend, May 30 & 31, Bishop Kopacz is allowing the churches in the Jackson Diocese to resume the public celebration of Mass. Because we are required to maintain Social Distancing, there will be some restrictions on the number of people in attendance, based on the capacity of the church. Because of this restriction, you will need to call Holy Spirit Church office 662-429-7851 to reserve your space.

You will need to call in on Mondays from 9:00 am until 12 noon. When the church reaches its capacity, people who call in will be placed on a list for the next weekend. You must wear a mask when attending.

As a reminder: if you are running a fever, or are feeling sick, please do not come.

Dear Parishioners:

As of July 1st I will be released from my parish duties to take a sabbatical.

Beginning May 31st, the Feast of Pentecost, Rev. David Szatkowski, SCJ, JCD, will be your Moderator.

Words cannot fully express my gratitude to you for the care, support and love you have shown me as Moderator these past four years. You have shown me the face of Christ in so many ways. For that I am deeply grateful. Your support, prayer and challenge have helped me grow stronger in love of the church and my appreciation for all you do to spread the love of Christ in our world. You have played an important role in my priestly vocation and in my position as a Moderator. Thank you.

Also, I want to apologize for times when I was not Christ-like to you. I am sorry and I ask for your forgiveness.

As I begin my new adventure and the unknown of the future, please keep me and my brothers, Father Greg Schill and Father David Szatkowski in your prayers. Each one of you will hold a special place in my heart when I celebrate Holy Eucharist.

Farewell to you.

May the Lord bless you and keep you.

May his face shine upon you and be gracious to you.

May he look upon you with kindness and give you peace.

In Faith, Hope and Love.

Fr. Thi N. Pham, SCJ.

Your Moderator 2016-2020.

+ + LITURGY OF THE WORD + +

FIRST READING:

ACTS 2:1-11

When the time for Pentecost was fulfilled, they were all in one place together. And suddenly there came from the sky a noise like a strong driving wind, and it filled the entire house in which they were. Then there appeared to them tongues as of fire, which parted and came to rest on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in different tongues, as the Spirit enabled them to proclaim.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven staying in Jerusalem. At this sound, they gathered in a large crowd, but they were confused because each one heard them speaking in his own language. They were astounded, and in amazement they asked, "Are not all these people who are speaking Galileans? Then how does each of us hear them in his native language? We are Parthians, Medes, and Elamites, inhabitants of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the districts of Libya near Cyrene, as well as travelers from Rome, both Jews and converts to Judaism, Cretans and Arabs, yet we hear them speaking in our own tongues of the mighty acts of God."

PSALM RESPONSE: "Lord, send out your Spirit, and renew the face of the earth."

SECOND READING:

1 CORINTHIANS 12:3B-7, 12-13

Brothers and sisters: No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit. There are different kinds of spiritual gifts but the same Spirit; there are different forms of service but the same Lord; there are different workings but the same God who produces all of them in everyone. To each individual the manifestation of the Spirit is given for some benefit. As a body is one though it has many parts, and all the parts of the body, though many, are one body, so also Christ. For in one Spirit we were all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, slaves or free persons, and we were all given to drink of one Spirit.

PENTECOST SEQUENCE

Come, Holy Spirit, come! And from your celestial home Shed a ray of light divine! Come, Father of the poor! Come, source of all our store! Come, within our bosoms shine. You, of comforters the best; You, the soul's most welcome guest; Sweet refreshment here below; In our labor, rest most sweet; Grateful coolness in the heat; Solace in the midst of woe. Nothing free from taint of ill. Heal our wounds, our strength renew; On our dryness pour your dew; Wash the stains of guilt away:	Bend the stubborn heart and will; O most blessed Light divine, Shine within these hearts of yours, And our inmost being fill! Where you are not, we have naught, Nothing good in deed or thought, Melt the frozen, warm the chill; Guide the steps that go astray. On the faithful, who adore And confess you, evermore In your sevenfold gift descend; Give them virtue's sure reward; Give them your salvation, Lord; Give them joys that never end. Amen. Alleluia.

ALLELUIA

GOSPEL:JOHN 20:19-23

On the evening of that first day of the week, when the doors were locked, where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, "Peace be with you." When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. The disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." And when he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven them, and whose sins you retain are retained."
