From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Parishioners,

Yesterday was a happy day in the parish, in that we welcomed Bishop Dominick who celebrated the Confirmation Mass at 10:00 am. With Confirmation, the twenty eight students who were confirmed, completed their baptism and their final sacrament of initiation. After Confirmation we continue to see some of our families, but other families sadly see Confirmation as the end of their participation at Sunday Mass, and they essentially become lapsed Catholics. Ultimately this is the responsibility of parents, a sad reality. Thankfully however, a segment of our families continue to be united with Christ every Sunday at the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. So congratulations to our new Confirmandi!

With the completion of Lent and Holy Week, the parish moves back to the ordinary rhythm of Parish Life. As the weather improves, and baseball and lacrosse start up, Sunday Mass attendance begins to wane a bit. With this in mind, Parish Council will be looking at the possibility of adjusting our week day and Saturday/Sunday Mass schedule. This is also in accord with the Making All Things new protocol which is again being applied to all parts of the diocese.

The Parish Lending Library is in good order, now located in the the Parish House. Previously there were a good number of books, but we had a great influx given to the parish by the family of former sexton, John Howland, after he died. In fact we have too many books; there are still a few cartons in the yellow garage. A Library Committee would be a great help, i.e. four or five people, one of whom would be chair, to maintain and promote the library. Please let me know if you would be interested.

The Church and Chapel looked beautiful at Easter time and thanks are extended to all those who contributed to the flower collection. Thanks are also extended to the members of Rosary Altar society who put in the time to set up, and continue to water the flowers.

Finally, I have been in contact with Deacon Hartley Bancroft (who had been a seminarian here for two summers). Hartley will be ordained to the Priesthood in May and I asked him if he would be willing to celebrate Mass here and he has agreed to do so in June, which is fantastic. So as we get closer, more details will be posted.

Yours in the Risen Christ,
Fr. Fallon

March was our month at the food pantry. We served 168 families which included 165 children, 285 adults and 54 senior citizens.

Besides the usual grocery bags we handed out, everyone got a ham for Easter dinner.

Our next month at the pantry is July.

Thanks for your generous support of the food pantry !
