Holy Father's Intention for May 2015

Universal: That, rejecting the culture of indifference, we may care for our neighbours who suffer, especially the sick and the poor.

Evangelization: That Mary's intercession may help Christians in secularized cultures be ready to proclaim Jesus.

From the Pastors Desk

From the Pastors Desk:

2. Mass: “The Lord be with you. And with your spirit.”

“The Lord be with you:” These words convey Jesus’ presence with the community of believers gathered in his name (Mt 18:20). This greeting also expresses the reality of God’s life dwelling within our souls by virtue of our baptism and that the priest is praying that this divine life we received may continue to grow within us. These words also recalls the words spoken to various heroes in the Bible who were called by God to a daunting mission, such as Moses (Ex 3:12); Joshua (1:5), King David (2 Sam 7:3); prophet Jeremiah (Jer 1:6-8), and Blessed Virgin Mary (Lk 1: 28), etc. On the one hand, the Lord be with you reminds us of the calling we each have. As God’s children, we each have a particular mission to fulfill in God’s plan. On the other hand, these words also assure us that we have access to God’s power that can support us through the trials and challenges of life and help us be faithful in whatever task God has entrusted to us.

“The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the Love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all:” other ritual option for the opening greeting comes from the words of St. Paul used in his letters. These words are derived from the initial greetings in Paul’s epistles (Rom 1:7; 1 Cor 1:3; Gal 1:3; Eph 1:2 etc.).

“And with your spirit:” By saying these words, the people are acknowledging the Holy Spirit’s unique activity through the priest during the sacred liturgy by virtue of his ordination. The people are addressing the ‘spirit’ of the priest; that is, that deepest interior part of his being where he has been ordained precisely to the people in this sacred action.

Prayers and Blessings, Rev. Dr. Lawrence Rasaian, JCD
