Health Corner

Why you need Vitamin D:

According to the Diabetic Focus magazine Vitamin D deficiency may be associated with peripheral neuropathy, a common complication of type 2 diabetes. Symptoms include numbness and tingling or prickling in your feet and/or hands. A recent study found the patients with peripheral neuropathy had significantly lower vitamin D blood levels and a higher prevalence of vitamin D deficiency than those without it. If you are diagnosed with Vitamin D deficiency, talk to your doctor about taking a supplement.

Youth News – Invite Your Friends To Join Us On Our Advent Journey Towards Excellence

Sunday Scripture Highlight

In the Gospel passage from Matthew, we see yet another aspect of Jesus in action, this time as he humbly stands before John to be baptized by him. Imagine, the Son of God waiting his turn in line with sinners seeking baptism. What humility and what willingness to unite Himself to us our Lord demonstrates by this act. We can do no less as we live out our daily lives as his disciples. And when we do strive with all our might to live out our Baptismal call to Christian stewardship, we will experience the deep honor of knowing that our we, too, are God's "beloved" sons and daughters "with whom He is well-pleased."

Stewardship

Today marks the close of the Christmas season, but before we return to Ordinary Time, we have one greater feast to celebrate — The Baptism of the Lord. And, as we are still in New Year's resolution season, today's feast is a perfect opportunity to consider the privileges and responsibilities we all share as Christian stewards by virtue of our own Baptism, and how we might live them out more fully in the year ahead. At the moment of our Baptism, whether in infancy or later in life, we became adopted sons and daughters of God, members of his holy, Catholic Church. Though we may not have realized it, the moment of our Baptism is also the moment we become Christian stewards, disciples of Jesus Christ, tasked with the work of following in His footsteps day by day and sharing the Gospel message with all those around us.
