32nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

The United States celebrates its annual observance of Veteran's Day on November 11th. This holiday is a time to pause and honor all those among us who have served in the Armed Forces. As a society, we should not forget that those in the military are real people, with hopes and joys, a moral compass and a worldview. These are the men and women who are in "the service" and sincerely desire to give of themselves for a greater good. These are the hearts behind the culture and creativity of "soft power," and they're a force that should not be dismissed or underestimated.

On this day of remembrance, may we ask God for the grace to find peaceful ways to resolve our conflicts, to share our resources, and to embrace all of God's children.

A Prayer for Veterans

Dear Lord, this week we honor our veterans, worthy men and women who gave their best when they were called upon to serve and protect their country.

We pray that you will bless them for their unselfish service in the continual struggle to preserve our freedoms, our safety, and our country's heritage, for all of us.

*Bless them abundantly for the hardships they faced,
for the sacrifices they made for their many different contributions to America's victories over tyranny and oppression.*

*We respect them, we thank them,
we honor them, we are proud of them.
We pray that you will watch over these special people and bless them with peace and happiness.*

2nd Collection for the Archdiocese for Military Services
This week our parish will take a second collection for the Archdiocese for Military Services. The Archdiocese for Military Services in the USA was established by Saint John Paul II in 1985 to provide pastoral ministries to those in the United States Armed Forces, enrolled in U.S. Military Academies, undergoing treatment at any of the 153 Department of Veterans Affairs' Medical Centers in the U.S., Puerto Rico and Guam, working in civilian jobs for the federal government beyond U.S. borders, and the families of these populations. Support the 2019 Triennial National Collection that funds to bring the Gospel, the sacraments and other forms of spiritual support to men and women who serve our Country and defend our freedoms. Kindly be generous.

A Note of Gratitude
Bless your hearts, to all who donated salads and bars for + Dennis Schafer's Memorial Mass on October 26 at OLP and to all who gave of your time to prepare and serve the meal, yours is a huge vote of thanks. Lastly, our appreciation goes out to our faithful dishwasher and the four little boys and their mother who set up the dining room. Your actions carried out one of the corporal works of mercy: that of honoring the dead. God bless you all.

Sunday Reflection: Life After Death

As we near the end of the Church's liturgical year, the readings become more eschatological — having to do with the end times. The main theme of today's readings is the reality of life after death.

The first reading states the first century BC Jewish theology of martyrdom and the resurrection of the just. The intense sufferings to which good Jews were subjected brought them to the conviction that the justice of God would reward the faithful in the afterlife and would also punish the wicked. The second reading was meant to encourage the Thessalonians who were waiting for the Parousia (the second coming of Christ and the resurrection of the dead), to trust in the fidelity of God.

Today's Gospel affirms the victory of God and God's love over the power of death. Jesus speaks of God as the God of the living, who promises that the ones who will rise to life in Heaven are God's children. He explains that heavenly life with God in glory is totally different from earthly life.

October Count of Church Attendance

It is customary in the month of October we take a count of people who participate in the Eucharistic celebration in our parishes. An average of 227 people attended at Our Lady of the Pines Church, Nevis and 65 people at St. Theodore's Church, Laporte. We are happy to have you worshipping with us regularly.

Prayer for Honest Hunt

Lord, may I make an honest count of game, respecting the legal limits of game in order to preserve the balance of life and death among the animals.

May I so love the truth that I always give an honest recounting of the hunting stories while keeping them interesting to my friends.

May I also listen to my friends' stories with enjoyment and without envy. Amen.
